I understand that canoeing is a high risk sport and that the decision to participate in events is entirely mine. I agree not to hold liable the Euxton Canoe Club, an informal association or any individual member for any accident, either personal or to property, which may occur through normal participation at Club events. I agree to be bound by any rules which may be decided from time to time in committee or general meeting and to accept instruction, advice or guidance given by a senior member at Club organised events.
